Jed Stone, Frillby United:
«Cellar Slippery Sam's Emporium Skelsthorpe

The small white rodent in 'Cosy Comfort' earphones in Slippery Sam's Cellar was in fact Frankie mouse. Though mouse shaped he is actually a small protrusion into this dimension of a super intelligent pan-dimensional being. (The earphones are a definite necessity for even super intelligent beings cannot withstand Vogan poetry for more than a few seconds without suffering brain shock.)

Frankie watched as the Vogans brought in a large number of barrels and took them off down a corridor. They were specially reinforced and contained draught Pan Galactic Gargle Blaster, destined for the cellar of the Babelfish. All part of the preparation for the local derby Frillby Utd v Slartibartfast. There were also a number of boxes that were left in another part of the cellar. Probably interstellar contraband for Sam's shop. As soon as the Vogans were out of sight Frankie slipped across to the nearest box and chewed a mouse size hole in one corner and slipped inside.

Out on the street Sam had managed to bring order to the rematch and the scores were tied at five all with no end in sight. He brought the match to a temporary halt as two Briggs lorries with hedges and armchairs went by on the way to the Twixby Stadium. They were closely followed by the Ladies of Skelsthorpe WI led by Constable Alf Brooks and his dog Bonzo out on a training exercise prior to the forthcoming match.»
