Publication date for issue 9 is Wednesday October 16. It might be out sooner. If you have heard nothing by this date, feel free to get in touch to check up on it. You can also check the following page, which gets updated at the same time as I send out the Sun:

<https://pvv.org/~janbu/rosun.html>

If issue 9 is out on time, the deadlines for issue 10 will be October 25 and November 1.

Next issue, you send orders for:

* Match days 15 and 16 in the league (see section 12)

This round, the home advantage remains 8 VP. The home team is listed first in the league schedule. All cup games are on neutral field (no home advantage).

In addition, as always, you send coaching. Optionally, you can also discover talents and buy/sell players.

Orders that reach me before the early deadline clearly marked «final» waive your chance to change them, in return for a cash bonus of 20 kKj to your club. Optionally, you can let me know your orders are «always final» - an option for those of you who never change your orders anyway.

By the time you read this, I have already sent out your teams. If you haven't received them by the day after the publication, please get in touch.

Jed Stone, Frillby United:

« Skelsthorpe

Arthur Doggs had driven lorries for Stanley Briggs and co for as long as he could remember, which, if he was really honest, was not very far. He'd noticed of late, that the further back he tried to push his memories the hazy it became. Mable, his wife of who-knew-how-long, said it was old age. He thought otherwise. He could clearly remember his teenage years as a supporter Slartibartfast. They slept under proper hedges in them days. Farmers hedges with nettles, brambles, dead leaves and hedgehogs and such like. Not these modern comfortable things that looked like privet or hawthorn but felt like feathers. Had to find your own hedge as well. They weren't delivered on the back of a truck and placed in a handy car park ready for when the match finished. He parked the truck and checked his watch. It was an hour or so from hedge-checking-out-time. More than enough time to nip into the 'Bable fish' for a swift Pan-galactic-gargle-blaster and a packet of crisps.

In the cellar below Slippery Sam's Emporium Frankie mouse peeped out of the hole he had chewed in the box and glanced around cautiously. The cellar was empty of folk and the Vogan poetry had been turned down to mere hum. He crawled out into the dimly lit cellar shook himself and stretched. Status fields always made him itch. He could almost feel the electric pulses crawling across his fur. He had probably lost an hour or two of time thanks to the status field but he had established the fact that the Pan-galactic-gargle-blaster sold at the 'Bable Fish' was the genuine article. It required special containers and a status field to transport it safely from Lazgar Beta - the only place to obtain the quality product - if you could afford their prices!!»
